President’s Corner

Deck the Halls… ’Tis the Season to be Jolly! Fa la la la laaa. Oops! Sorry. I know some of you don’t like leftovers. But we made it through the many celebrations and gatherings and the shortest day of the year! So far, so good! On the other hand, many of us struggle emotionally and mentally at this time of year. The pressure and additional work of the celebrations, unpleasant gatherings, and did I mention the short days? I want to encourage you, if you’re feeling low, to seek help. There are several places to turn to on campus: The Community Counseling Training Center in Graham 416, 753-9312, cahc_cctc@niu.edu; the Couple and Family Therapy Clinic in Wirtz 146, 753-1684, familytherapy@niu.edu; Psychological Services Center in Psych/Math 86, 753-0591, go.niu.edu/jst8r1; and the Employee Assistance Program, 753-9191, employeeassistance@niu.edu. Please do not think that no one cares. Talk to a trusted coworker or friend; reach out and tell someone that you are struggling. I want every one of the Huskie family to know that you are a valued member of our community. I wish everyone a prosperous, gratifying and Happy New Year!

Forward! Together!
Barb Andree, President
Operating Staff Council 2017–2018

Do you know an employee who goes above and beyond the call of duty? Please consider nominating these individuals for the OSC Outstanding Award.

This award is presented each year to recognize individual Civil Service employees who demonstrate outstanding service and who make significant contributions to the university and to the community. Up to four awards are given out each year and will be presented at the annual Operating Staff Service Awards Banquet in the spring.

Eligible employees must be full- or part-time status civil service employees who have been continuously employed at NIU since February 1, 2012, or before.

The nomination form and additional information can be found at: go.niu.edu/7utpd6

Deadline for nominations is 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Position Classification Review (Desk Audit)

All Civil Service employees have a right to have their position periodically reviewed by Human Resource Services to determine the appropriate classification for each position.

Did you know that if your job duties have changed and you have been performing them for at least 30 days, you can ask your supervisor to submit a Position Classification Review (Desk Audit) request through PeopleAdmin? An updated position description that accurately reflects the current duties and responsibilities designated and performed for a minimum of 30 days should be submitted through PeopleAdmin.

What is PeopleAdmin? PeopleAdmin is a web-based, Human Resource software program that allows higher education institutions, like NIU, to electronically process various HR transactions, such as requests to refill positions, salary increases/adjustments, funding changes, job description updates and position classification reviews (desk audits). NIU began using this tool in spring 2017. Access to make such requests is given to designated office support staff, business managers, department heads, division heads and other staff who would normally process/approve the paper versions of such transactions.

If you have any questions about the desk audit process, please contact Pulchratia Smith, Director of Employee Services (753-6023 or pkinneysmith@niu.edu).
